A Budget of Local News

Many Interesting Items of Local and General Affairs—Personal Mention

Erin go Bragh.
E. C. Logan is having a large addition erected at the rear of his drugstore.

E. J. Roughton of Edmonton, is relieving the accountant at the local branch of the Merchants Bank.

M. A. Harpell, the well known international agent, returned in Saturday night from a trip through the surrounding districts.

Mr. and Mrs. John McCann wish to thank all those who assisted them during the illness of their daughter Evelyn, who passed away on Friday last.

The different implement houses in the town report record sales of farm machinery this spring. Already a large amount has been taken out by the settlers of the surrounding district.

Be sure and attend the Firemen's complimentary ball on Monday evening next. The members of the brigade are working hard making preparation for the entertainment of their guests.

E. C. Buckley, who has been visiting different points at the coast for the past few weeks, returned home on Saturday. He had a very pleasant time while away, but says he will be content in Wainwright for the future, as it has them all beat.

The great three entitled—The Glove Factory failed to materialize on Saturday evening last and as a consequence a number were disappointed, as it was fully expected that there would be a musical sport at this presentation as the first one of a couple of weeks ago.

The warm weather of the past few days has resulted in the disappearance of a great deal of the snow from the town. As a result, the low spots on Third avenue are all covered with water, it being almost impossible to reach some of the business places on that avenue.

The editor of the Star is in receipt of a personal letter from R. Aykroyd who is at present in Scotland, in which he states that a number of settlers will be leaving the old Country for Northern Alberta this year. The immigration will be far ahead of last year.

A very sad death occurred on Friday last, when Evelyn May, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McCann passed away after an illness extending over some few days. The little girl contracted a severe attack of measles and despite the best medical assistance departed this life. The funeral took place to the Wainwright cemetery on Saturday afternoon, Rev. J. A. James conducting the funeral services. A large number of the friends of the sorrowing parents accompanied the remains to their last resting place. The sympathy of the community is extended to Mr. and Mrs. McCann.

The new fire bell will be christened on Monday night, when the citizens of the town are cordially invited to attend the ceremony in the Auditorium at eight o'clock. A splendid programme has been prepared for the occasion. After the christening ceremony a short programme will be presented, the evening being wound up with a dance. There is no charge whatever connected with this affair, the boys wishing to show their appreciation of the splendid support given them by the citizens and the council.

The pay ear is due today. Friday of next week is Good Friday.

Ed. Ripley, of Irma, spent a couple of days in town this week.

Mrs. Geo. Smith is confined to her bed at present owing to illness.

The Wainwright Realty Co. have been appointed agents for C.P.R. lands.

The railway employees on this division will give a grand ball in the Auditorium on Mar. 31st.

We understand there will be a meeting of the Glove Factory shareholders in the Auditorium on Saturday evening.

Bert Carter and wife returned on Tuesday from Wolf Creek, where they have been for the past few weeks.

Inspector C. H. Sweetapple, of Fort Saskatchewan, was in town last week on business connected with the Royal North West Mounted Police.

A successful concert was held at Edgerton on Friday evening of last week in aid of the building fund of the Presbyterian church at that place. A large crowd was in attendance and everyone thoroughly enjoyed the splendid programme presented.

The annual examination of the candidates and probationers for the ministry of the Methodist church for the Wainwright district will be held in Grace church, Wainwright and in the Methodist church, Sedge-wick, commencing at 9 a.m. on Tuesday, April 12th. Five young men will be in attendance.

The different railroad employees running into the town and working here will hold a grand ball in the Auditorium on Tuesday evening, March 31st. The boys are making extensive preparations for the affair, which promises to be one of the most successful ever held in town.

A number of the members of the Ladies' Aid are giving a most original entertainment in the Methodist church on the evening of April 1st, "All Fools Day." Some laughable contests will be on the programme. Wear your old duds and also pay a fine. Tickets to this Poverty Concert cost five or two for 25c.

H. C. King has been distributing a very pretty souvenir for St. Patrick's Day, which is observed by all Irishmen. The souvenir is in the form of a bunch of shamrocks and a tastefully printed and decorated Japanese table napkin, with a pretty story of the presentation each year of a sprig of shamrock to every soldier of the Irish guards by Queen Alexandra. ## Busy Session Of Council.

Several Important Matters Transacted at Regular Meeting on Monday Night

The regular weekly meeting of the Council was held in the office of the secretary-treasurer on Monday evening, Councilors Dawson and Logan being present.

After reading of the minutes, the council took up the different matters demanding attention in a businesslike manner.

The following accounts, referred back at the last meeting were again received, certified corrected and passed:

Musson and Ross, oil, $8.80
E. James, repairing pump, 2.00
Secretary-Treasurer Field-house reported that he had called the meeting of ratepayers, to vote on the question of incorporation, for Tuesday evening, March 22, in the Auditorium at 7 p.m.

Secretary of the fire brigade was instructed to return the use of oil secured from Musson & Ross.

A communication was received from the Western Municipal News asking the council to subscribe for the same.

Owing to the possible change in the council at an early date, no action was taken.

L. P. Hussey petitioned the council to construct a sidewalk on Queen Street, west from Second Avenue to the town will, as the road was impassable. It is utterly impossible to undertake any work of this nature until the frost is all out of the ground, but the board promised that it would receive attention at as early a date as possible.

The secretary reported that dog taxes were coming in at a good rate. During the past week a number of dogs have been destroyed.

The following accounts were ordered paid:

E. James, work on streets, $8.75.
Wainwright Star, advertising, $11.97.

The following subscription for the band fund were ordered refunded on motion of Councilor Logan and Chairman Dawson:

Wainwright Star, $5.00
W. B. Crawford, 5.00
Musson & Ross, 5.00

The secretary was instructed to advertise for tenders for the position of town scavenger, to be in by Saturday, 6 p.m. In future all scavenging work will be charged up against the general funds. Manure must be removed by the parties owning property on which the same is lying.

The council resolved itself into committee of the whole to inspect condition of crossing over gully on Queen street, north of Third Avenue and repair the same. They will also look over Third Avenue and if possible devise some means of removing the water from same.

The secretary was instructed to notify C. S. Wingard to place a railing around the open cellar on his property on Main street.

The secretary was instructed to proceed with the preparation of the assessment.

The matter of preparing the staging for the erection of the fire bell was left in the hands of the fire brigade.

The meeting then adjourned to meet at the call of the chairman.

Reflections

I think you said last week Mr. Editor that you never know where the Star would break out afresh, so you must not be surprised at this explosion. In the first place put out your hand and ascertain if you are awake and tell us why it is you persist in boring us to death with the remark that the best way to start the New Year is to pay our subscriptions to the Wainwright Star. I think by this time all readers who intend to pay have braced up and as your sublime advertisement is not of the sort to catch new subscribers for goodness sake "Cut it out." But say "I'll tell you what I'll do to help you out." Give me that space next week and I'll put in a note that will bring more subscriptions than you can shake a stick at.

A special session of the Wainwright parliament was held on Friday last in the Legislative Chamber. As I am not just at present in very good favor with the Executive I did not appear, but from outside reports I learned that owing to the unavoidable absence of the Premier the Attorney General led the government party. The Minister of Public Works was also absent, being engaged in the very much more important work of cleaning out the city sewers. (good useful man) Only one bill was laid on the table. A ten dollar bill at the close of the proceedings.

The local detachment of the R.N.W.M.P. vindicated itself at a court martial held on Wednesday for neglect of duty. I am very glad to know that Constable Walker came out unscathed from a very serious indictment. Chavira is a first rate representative of law and order. He is always on the spot, minds his own business and is genial, civil and obliging. He has made many friends in Wainwright who are heartily pleased to know that he has lost nothing by facing a charge laid against him in a very unfriendly manner.

What is the matter with the city band. The only token of its existence are occasional doleful notes issuing from mysterious places and reminding one of the sound of potatoes poured from one barrel into another. It would be more hopeful if the performers would come out and show themselves as we would then be able to see what the remains of the band looks like, as we have certainly quite forgotten.

The town council with commendable energy are endeavoring to abate the dog pest. It is about time. A venerable lady who drives for enjoyment, but for weeks been forced to take a route considerably out of her way to avoid a serious accident, which avenue of escape is also sometimes blocked by the savage attacks of utterly useless dogs. Sausage manufacturers please take note.

The Telford hockey team were unfortunately unable to play their game against Wainwright last Thursday on account of the soft ice. The townspeople were also very much disappointed as they had all their months picked up in anticipation of a good game, which means much yelling. It is to be hoped that the visitors departed with as good an opinion of Wainwright as our boys had of them when they visited Telford.

WHITE-LEWIS

Miss Lewis arrived direct from Michigan on Tuesday's train. Mr. White meeting her here by appointment, Mr. and Mrs. White left on the Wednesday morning westbound train for their future home near Junkins, Alta. We wish them all success in their future life.

Rev. J. A. James was a visitor to Edgerton last week.

J. P. Fined

J. H. Dawson Fined $5 and Costs for Assaulting Member of the Star Staff

J. H. Dawson, J. P., was charged before Justices of the Peace Henry and Gregory on Friday afternoon with having assaulted C. S. Summer, of the Star staff, in the office of the Wainwright Star, on the morning of Saturday, March 6.

The court room was crowded when the case was called. The defendant, who did not appear, was represented by H. V. Fieldhouse, who entered a plea of guilty, asking for the leniency of the court.

When the J. P. began to discuss the case, Mr. Fieldhouse, objected to Mr. Gregory sitting in the case as he considered him prejudiced against his client. Mr. Gregory accordingly withdrew.

The penalty set by the remaining J. P., was five dollars and costs, a total of $9.15.

The Birth Of Saint Patrick.

By Samuel Lever

On the eighth day of March it was, some people say, that Saint Patrick at midnight first saw the day.

While others declare it was the night he was born and twas all a mistake between midnight and morn.

For mistakes will occur in a hurry and shock, and some blamed the baby and some blamed the clock.

Till with all their cross-questions, surmises and know how, if the child was too fast or the clock was too slow.

Now, the first fiction fight in old Ireland, they say, was all on account of Saint Patrick's birthday.

Some fought for the eighth—for the ninth were would die.

And who wouldn't see right, sure, they blacked his eye!

At last both the factions so positive grew, that each kept a birthday; so Pat then had two.

Till Father Moleahy, who showed them their sins, said, "No one could have two birthdays but a twin."

Says he, "Boys, don't be fightin' for eight or for nine, Don't be always dividin'—but sometimes combine."

Combine eight with nine, and seventeen is the mark. So let that be his birthday.

"Amen," says the clerk, "If he wasn't a twin, sure, our history will show that at least he's worth any two saints that we know."

Then they all got blind drunk—which completes their bliss, and we kept up the practice from that day to this.

Crampton Bros. wish to thank the writer of the following anonymous letter received on March 15—"Woe Unto Yourselves," and signed Thanks St. Thomas.

A great deal of credit is due the parties having charge of the construction of the cement sidewalks for the splendid manner in which they were built. They have come through without any noticeable damage.

Over one hundred membership tickets in the W. A. A. A. have been sold already. By the president, M. L. Forster. From appearances, this will be the most successful year the association ever had.

A Memorial To Dr. McIntyre

Subscription List Opened for Purpose of Raising Funds to Erect Suitable Monument

The Star is in receipt of the following letter, which explains itself:

Edmonton, Mar. 4, 1910
Editor Wainwright Star.

Dear Sir,
At a convention held at Wetaskiwin last fall to select a candidate to contest the riding in succession to our late member Dr. McIntyre, a resolution was passed naming a committee who were to take charge of gathering funds for the erection of a memorial to Dr. McIntyre. The Committee consisted of the following members: Hon. A. C. Rutherford, Premier; R. T. Telford, M. P.; C. H. Olin, M. P.; G. P. Smith, M. P.; Chas. Stewart, M. P.; J. C. Holden, M. P.; Archibald Campbell, M. P.; A. Bramley Moore, M. P. P.

The committee met in Edmonton a few days ago and elected the Hon. A. C. Rutherford as chairman, Mr. J. M. Douglas, M. P., as treasurer, and Mr. G. P. Smith, M. P., as secretary. The Committee decided to utilize all the newspapers in the Strathcona riding as a means of gathering subscriptions for the purpose outlined at the Wetaskiwin convention. They also decided that the memorial would take the form of a monument to be erected by the graveside of our late member, and the balance of all money collected would be handed to his widow.

You are therefore authorized to publish this letter and to open the subscription list in your columns at once. All subscriptions may be acknowledged week by week through your paper and remitted by you to Mr. Douglas, the treasurer in Strathcona, who will publish amounts received from each of the papers interested in the fund.

Knowing as I do, the high esteem in which our late member was held, and the great sorrow felt at his untimely demise, I am sure that you will be glad to undertake this work, and that the people in your community will make a generous and prompt response.

Yours truly
G. F. SMITH, Sec'y.

In compliance with the above a subscription list has been opened by H. Y. Pawling, and the names of all persons making donations to the fund will have the same acknowledged through the columns of the Star. Mr. Pawling is accepting the subscriptions on the request of the Star.

F. L. Phillips, lately of the Weekly Echo, published at Dominion City, Manitoba, has decided to start a paper at Vicking. He was in town a couple of days this week on his way to Wainwright to purchase his plant. The first issue of the new paper which will be known as the Gazette, will appear about the first of April.

A Canadian in Scotland.

R. Aykroyd, of this District, who is at present in the Old Country on Immigration Work, Writes "Interesting Letter to The Star."

Edinburgh, Scotland, Feb. 30th
To the Editor Wainwright Star
Dear Sir—In compliance with the request of friends I send you this letter hoping you may deem it worthy of publication.
I am aware that little of Scotland is known to the average Canadian, and further that the people of a young country, such as Canada, may not appreciate the ancient ballads and legends with which nearly every hill, and dale of Scotland is connected; but perhaps a few remarks about that ancient and interesting city of Inverness might not be unacceptable.

Inverness is situated at the northern extremity of the famous Caledonian canal, or rather at the outlet of the River Ness into the Moray Firth. Landing at Muirtown from one of the steamers, and taking a cab to that city, one gets an excellent view of this pleasant and historic place. The castle on its elevated site has an air of grandeur about it, surpassing many more gigantic structures of its kind. The hill in the distance covered with thick verdure of heath, and fern, the "Wooded braes" of the "Black Isle" and the clear sparkling water of the Firth, and River Ness, all unite to make a scene as varied, and beautiful as can be imagined.

The city of Inverness, the capital of the Highlands has a population of about twenty thousand. It is perhaps the most ancient burgh in this part of Scotland, having in the 12th century received a charter from William the Lion. Its history dates back for over eight hundred years. The city is divided into two parts, by the River Ness which is spanned by five bridges. The business section of the town occupies the flat on both sides of the river, but numerous streets, and villas stretch along the terrace which rises above the valley. Though the town is old the buildings generally are of modern type, and quite high, the streets are wide, and are generally lined with trees, giving at once an air of freedom and repose. Among the interesting buildings here may be mentioned the Town Hall erected at a cost of about sixty thousand dollars, and opened in 1885 by H. R. H. the Duke of Edinburgh. In the front of the hall is a very beautiful fountain, and in its foundation may be seen the old "Clach-na-Cuiddin Stone" from which in days gone by all public proclamations were made. In the southeast of the town is the Castle Hill, which commands an excellent view of hill and valley, river, Firth and Woodland, stretching from Loch Ness to Ben Nevis in Ross-shire. Before leaving Castle Hill we might mention that a castle was built here in the eleventh century, and tradition tells us that here King Duncan was murdered by Macbeth. The wooded hill which terminates the slope opposite Castle Hill, in Craigh Phaidrick, and here the antiquarian will be interested to find the remains of a vitrified fort, one of a chain which can be traced along the coast, and through the Great Glen. The cemetery of Tomnahurich with its many of the city is very interesting being perhaps the only one of its kind. Tomnahurich is a wooden hill, standing out distinctly from the surrounding country. It has been laid out as a cemetery and is generally conceded to be one of the most beautiful and romantic in the world. A very fitting mound to mark the last resting place of the silent dead. A few miles to the eastward is Culloden Moor, where the army of Prince Charlie was totally defeated in 1796 and became the victims of an unsparring slaughter. The field is in a desolate tract of table land traversed by a carriage road by the sides of which two or three green mounds mark the spot where numbers of the slain were interred. "Surely Glory is a dream of madmen."

About three-quarters of a mile up the river are a number of islands connected with each other and the roadway on either side by means of suspension bridges. These islands are beautifully lighted at night, and are the favorite resort of the people on the summer evenings.

Space will not permit me to mention in this letter all the places of interest, historic and scenic, in the vicinity of Inverness, but after a stay of several weeks in that part I still found much to interest me. In conclusion allow me to quote a sonnet, by Professor Blackie who said he had seen "most of the fair cities of Europe, the finest in Africa and one of the finest in Asia."

Some-thing of Rome, and some of Florence,
I will sound the Highland praise, fair Inverness,
And till some worthier bard thy thanks may buy,
Hope for the greater, but not spurn the less.
All things that make a city fair are thine;
The rightful queen, and sovereign of this land;
Of fens, and glens, and valiant men who shine,
Brightest in Britain's glory roll, and stand,
Best bulwarks of her bounds wide circling sweep.
Of rich green slopes, and brown, emerald-green dale,
And every mead, and fair bay,
Temple, and tower are thine, and nestled keep,
And angelic stream, that round fair gardened isles,
Rolls its majestic current wreathed in emerald.

When men can be taught to realize that indifference to the safety of others may in the course of events some time be their own life or that of a member of his family in danger, a longer step will have been taken toward increased safety than all the mechanical appliances that can possibly be used."

Reflections

The snow and ice are going very rapidly causing small torrents to flow through the streets and undermining the nice new cement sidewalks. If the floods do much damage to the concrete work we are a poor Richier who will get all the blame, but if the work stands then the council will get all the praise.

Such a Choke vat it is!

In a letter published last week I was accused of insulting the ladies of Wainwright. This is a very serious charge to make against me. Upon reading the statement I decided to bring action for slander, libel, malice etc but was so much mollified by the very kind greeting afterwards received on the public streets from the ladies themselves, that I have since given up that idea. As I venture to state they do not feel so insulted as my worthy friend seems to imagine. However, to settle the matter finally, may I suggest that a ballot be taken by the ladies as to how many of them really feel aggrieved. If the majority vote for "insult," let them punish me. I have no hair which they can pull out but the words "Insult of Women" or some other dreadful legend could be painted on my bald head thereby providing the people with something to grin at as well as another object of derision.

More Than Half Of The G. T. P. Done.

Statement Issued Showing That of the 7,900 Miles of the Transcontinental, 4,800 Miles Have Been Completed. Being Built or Under Contract.

A statement issued from the headquarters of the G. T. P. show that of 7,900 miles authorized, 4,800 miles, or sixty per cent, were now either completed, being built or under contract. On the main line 3,550 miles from Moncton to Prince Rupert, a total of 3,000 miles of track has been placed under construction. On this there has been laid 1,725 miles of track, counting the government section in the east and the G. T. P. proper in the west. While the government and of it still consists of a series of disconnected sections the G. T. P. main line consisting of 793 miles from Winnipeg to Edmonton, is complete, and has been in operation 18 months.

Within the past ninety days the track laying has been completed 123 miles west from Edmonton to Wolf Creek. This completes the steel on the prairie section of 914 miles between Winnipeg and Wolf Creek. Track laying was recently completed from Winnipeg to Fort William, 445 miles, making a continuous stretch of steel of 1,300 miles, from Fort William via Winnipeg and Edmonton to Wolf Creek. The report states that the Winnipeg-Fort William section cannot be completed for practical operation for some months, as considerable work has to be done at its east and west ends before the trains can be run over it.
